NYSAPLS

The next NYSAPLS Board of Directors meeting will be held 20-21 March at the Days Inn (formerly Schrafts), Rte 9W, Glenmont.

A booth at "Engineers' Week" held in the Empire State Plaza, was sponsored by NYSAPLS and staffed by ENYSLS. The emphasis was on surveying as it pertained to engineering.

A draft of a letter prepared by ENYSLS regarding Sellers' Affidavits will be presented to the B.O.D. at the March 20th meeting. It is to be sent to legislators, lending institutions, title companies, the Attorney General, and any other pertinent parties. It is hoped that the other regionals will follow suit.

ENYSLS

At tonight's general meeting we will be hosting students from Paul Smiths College. They have been sponsored by the following area firms: ABD Engineers & Surveyors; Boutelle & Son; Clough, Harbour & Assoc.; Hershberg & Hershberg; Robert McFarlane; C.T. Male Assoc.; C.P. Momrow; Smith & Mahoney; and Bruce Wells. ENYSLS and PSC extend their thanks to those firms.

Paul Hite has volunteered to coordinate this year's Traverse Open. Golf with a cookout or diner is being considered for some time in July. There will be a sign-up sheet at the head table after the general meeting for those who may be interested.

32d Annual Conference material is available at significantly reduced costs. It is available from Mike Cirillo tonight.

The President welcomed the students from Paul Smiths College and their advisor, Mr. Martin. The students were given the opportunity to introduce themselves and describe their experiences working that day.

Tabled/Old Business:

Jim Allen will look into fixing up the Baseline/EDM Test Range after things settle down from this Paul Smiths' Night.

Charlie Hartnett discussed his recent return from the Centennial Anniversary Conference of the Association of Ontario Land Surveyors, where he presented them with a set of framed prints. These were presented on behalf of the 1991 NYSAPLS Conference Committee in recognition for the continued interest and support given to us by AOLS, often at their own individual expense.

New Business

Mike Davis announced the Vermont Surveyors' Conference. He discussed the friendly rivalry that has developed over the last couple of years. Vermont had a large delegation in attendance at the 1992 NYSAPLS Conference. If anyone is interested in attending Vermont's conference, contact Mike Davis at ABD.

Leon Steves presented an idea concerning the use of surveys by parties other than those directly involved with the original survey. Frequently lending institutions will accept out dated surveys which were prepared for parties no longer involved in the transaction at hand. Leon asked the B.O.D. to enquire of NYSAPLS counsel, Mona Glazner, if there would be any legal difficulty in placing a note on a survey, to the effect that the undersigned (surveyor) was entitled to a residual fee by parties using the survey map if other than those named on said plan.

Chris Momrow announced that NYSAPLS was still soliciting comments regarding a revised Code of Practice.

Ed Garrigan announced a seminar, in which he is participating, to be held 29 April in Colonie. The topic is about boundary disputes and retracement surveys. He had registration forms available.

Don Selee mentioned that Northern recently issued a resolution regarding mandatory continuing education. Bill Lucarelli mentioned that NYSAPLS has a committee working on this issue.

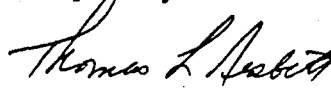

Legislation extending the "N Exemption" will be introduced into the Legislature this spring.

Charlie Hartnett announced commemorative ceremonies for Verplank Colvin. There will be two programs, one at the Grove Cemetery grave site in Coeymans on May 9, and the other at the Stillwater Reservoir on May 16. Anyone interested may get further details from Charlie or the secretary.

Louis Gnip, employed by NYS office of General Services, was introduced as the speaker for the evening. His topic was an abbreviated form of the program he presented at the 1992 NYSAPLS Conference about Lands Under Water.

A motion to adjourn the meeting of the Board of Directors was made by Randy Paquin Seconded by Jim Lagasse, and carried. The meeting was adjourned at 9:56 PM.

Respectfully Submitted
