GENERAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING

Thursday, May 11, 2000

Gerons Restaurant

Low Street, Ballston Spa, NY

President Nelson called the meeting to order at 9:05 P.M.

Tonight's program, lead by Robert MacFarlane, discussed the issues that a surveyor should consider when giving an estimate for a project. The discussion used a specific property in Ballston Spa as an example. Bob gave his views of the many factors, which should be considered in the estimate.

SECRETARY'S REPORT was submitted by mail. Motion to accept by Bill LaPan, seconded by Ray Liuzzo.

TREASURER'S REPORT: Bill LaPan submitted his report for audit.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT: The Next NYSAPLS Meeting will be in Albany on Friday May 19. Members who have not paid their dues will be contacted soon. The Long Island Association will be sponsoring a seminar in July about protecting surveyors from lawsuits, NYSAPLS Benefits 2000 and Lyme Disease. Lobby Day will be held Tuesday May 23. Our condolences to Mike Cirillo on the loss of his mother, to Brian Magee on the loss of his uncle and to Adam Butler on the loss of his father.

Old/Tabled Business: no old/tabled business

New Business: Jeff Ostertag raised the question about the state police performing land surveying. A discussion was held about the use of modern surveying equipment to map accident scenes. A suggestion was made to have a program on wetlands because of recent changes in the rules by ACOE. NYSAPLS Benefits 2000 brochures were passed out.

Motion to adjourn made by Bill LaPan, seconded by Tom Nesbitt, approved. Meeting adjourned @ 9:25 PM

Respectfully Submitted,

Richard W. Bennett, L.S.
ENYSLS Secretary

Notice: Next BOD meeting to be held June 8, 2000 at Gil VanGuilder's office at 5:30 PM.
