The N.S.P.S. film "A Matter of Degrees" was shown.

New Business:

State Education Committee will meet Friday, March 20 at the Inn at the Century.

Meg Shields reported on the new building selected for NYSAPLS headquarters. Located in Syracuse, it is an older home, not historic. Price is 85,000, it appears little work has to be done to move in. Has a second building for rental. Should have a video at the next State Board meeting, March 20 at the Inn at the Century.

Old Business:

Business Practice Committee - Sal Santo reported on his correspondence with the State Education Department and the State Board for Engineering and Land Surveying concerning individuals with out of state licenses practicing in New York. The report concerned the apparent ease with which a temporary permit is issued under sections 7207 and 7208B of the Education Law. It may take new legislation to correct some of the problems. This will be discussed at the next State Board meeting.

With no further business, President Behrens asked for a motion to adjourn, motion by Rodney Michael, second by Don Carpenter, the meeting was adjourned at 10:40 P.M.

Respectfully submitted
